Elisheva Levin moved to approve the minutes as written, seconded by Elizabeth Groginsky. Motion passed unanimously.

Council Chair & Executive Director Report – Joel Davis & Alice Liu McCoy

Alice reviewed the Council duties and responsibilities. Katie Stone asked if DDC has liability coverage. Alice responded that protections afforded to the State of New Mexico extend to the agency's activities.

DDC Staffing & Reorganization Update – Donna Vigil

Donna reviewed the agency's hiring and reorganization progress since 2019. Katie Stone asked if the new structure is an improvement. Alice described how the new hires and organizational structure has helped the agency run much more smoothly and is a tremendous improvement for the accomplishment of Council goals.

FY 24 Operating Budget & Additional Funding – Michelle Varela

Michelle Varela reviewed the FY24 operating budget and additional state and federal funding appropriated to the Council. Alice discussed the Office of Guardianship funding and the new STARS data system. Joel Davis asked if the Council was receiving adequate funding to staff the agency. Alice responded that funding is adequate for FY24, but more funds will be needed to expand the agency in FY25.

Council Chair & Executive Director Report – Joel Davis & Alice Liu McCoy

Alice reviewed the agency's budget request and discussed the agency's budget needs. Donna

Vigil discussed DDC's significant growth in FTE. Valentin discussed the need for additional staff for more administrative support and in Office of Guardianship, and exploring outside funding sources, such as federal funding and other grants. Alice gave an update on additional federal grants and funding awarded to DDC. Jennifer Sanchez, Scott Doan, Tim Gardner, Joe Turk, and Alice discussed the problem of DD Waiver service providers and school staff pushing individuals with disabilities toward guardianship. Secretary Elizabeth Groginsky urged DDC to invest in education and outreach efforts to change the culture around guardianship. Joel raised concern from tribal communities that the DD Waiver intake process is not allowing applicants to use tribal ID cards as secondary ID.

Joel Davis moved to approve the budget as presented, seconded by Jennifer Sanchez. Motion passed unanimously.

Joel announced that DDC and its staff won awards at The Arc of New Mexico conference.

Alice announced new leadership at the State, including Dr. Jose Acosta in the role of DDS Director and Secretary Jen Schroer, who was newly appointed at Aging and Long-Term Services Department.
